

Song / Waiata (English Version)

We are Whare Timatatanga Hou Ora here to support your new path.
As caregiver, extended family no matter what situation
We understand that the greatest value in life is people and the well-being of
future generations

(Reach out and call on us, to give you strength and confidence)

We have heard your call and hear the hardships and burdens that you have faced. Don't hide away from yourself, you are a confident women, someone's sister, someone's mother Stand and be strong, let you true self-shine through

(Reach out and call on us, to give you strength and confidence)

You are a special descendant, the genealogy of great caregivers Earth Mother, the first women, Caregiver of childbearing, these are your ancestors, the first to walk this earth

(Reach out and call on us, to give you strength and confidence)

That is why dear one. Stand strong, be brave and have patience
For here are the fruits of our next generation for you to nurture

We are Whare Timatatanga Hou Ora here to support your new path.
As a caregiver, extended family no matter what situation
We understand that the greatest value in life is people and the well-being of future generations.
